Forward

Greetings from CCS National Institute of Agricultural Marketing, Jaipur!

Agricultural Marketing in India has been witnessing accelerated positive changes in the last few years. In order to enable farmers with better bargaining power and improved market access, Government of India has been actively facilitating formation and promotion of Farmer Producer Organisations (FPOs), to help their members particularly small, marginal and landless farmers in augmenting their income.

2. To assist farming community in reducing information gap for them, CCSNIAM has made massive efforts to compile the information on major 'Farmer Producer Organizations' in India. I hope this directory will immensely help, Policy Practitioners, Industry, Business & Marketing Organizations etc. to work towards promotion of FPOs.

Prasanta Kumar Swain
Additional Secretary,
Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare &
Director General, CCS NIAM

Acknowledgement

The information of Farmer Producers Organisation in this directory was collected from open access online sources including Small Farmers Agribusiness Consortium, National Bank For Agriculture and Rural Development, State Agricultural Marketing Boards, Government Departments through official channels. Collected information from the various sources (online and offline) were cross verified by contacting the concerned persons in the organization through telephone and information is updated. The redundant and incomplete information were deleted from the directory. FPO whose information is not included in Directory may send their information to CCS NIAM for future updation. CCSNIAM would like to acknowledge everyone who provided information and contributed in the compilation of Farmer's Producer Handbook.
